Learning support for recipients of benefits according to §§ 2, 3 AsylbLG

1. Who is entitled? (§§ 2, 3 AsylbLG in conjunction with § 34 section 1 and 5 SGB XII)

School pupils who

- are enrolled in a general or vocational school and
- are entitled to benefits for subsistence according to AsylbLG,

if the learning support is suitable and also necessary, which means that

- there is a risk of key learning goals not being met (year must be repeated) and
- this can be avoided by receiving learning support and
- the insufficient performance has not been caused by unexcused absence or continuous misconduct and
- suitable offers of free learning support are not provided by the school.

2. Where should the application be submitted? Which documents are necessary?

It is necessary to apply for the benefits.

Application forms are available at the Chemnitz Sozialamt (Social Welfare Office) and can also be found online on the Chemnitz city website.

The application may be submitted as follows:

A statement from school regarding the need for learning support must be appended to the application (the form for the statement is provided with the application form or is also available online as page 2 of the application form).

3. What amount is granted?

The amount needed for learning support is determined by the Sozialamt based on the statement from school.

4. How is the benefit granted?

Applicants receive a notification from the Sozialamt regarding the granting of benefits.

The applicant then submits this notification to his/her learning support provider.

The costs for learning support are invoiced to the Sozialamt, which then pays the learning service provider directly.
